Mandatory Reporting in North Carolina

North Carolina has a mandatory reporting law that states “any person or institution who has cause to suspect that any juvenile is abused, neglected, or has died as a result of maltreatment, shall report the case.”

You do not need proof the maltreatment has occurred; you only need reasonable cause to suspect maltreatment.

You do not need anyone’s permission to file a report.

A person who makes a report in good faith is immune from any liability that might arise.

It is your job as an adult to protect children.
Mandatory Reporting in North Carolina

Penalty – Any person 18 years of age or older, who knows or should have reasonably known that a juvenile was the victim of a violent offense, sexual offense, or misdemeanor child abuse under G.S. 14-318.2, and knowingly or willfully fails to report as required by subsection (b) of this section, or who knowingly or willfully prevents another person from reporting as required by subsection (b) of this section, is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.
Mandatory Reporting in North Carolina

7B-309. Immunity of persons reporting and cooperating in an assessment. Anyone who makes a report pursuant to this Article; cooperates with the county department of social services in a protective services assessment; testifies in any judicial proceeding resulting from a protective services report or assessment; provides information or assistance, including medical evaluations or consultation in connection with a report, investigation, or legal intervention pursuant to a good-faith report of child abuse or neglect; or otherwise participates in the program authorized by this Article; is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for that action provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed.
North Carolina Mandated Reporter Law

WHO Must Report?

- Anyone who suspects abuse must report it.

WHAT Must You Report?

- Abuse
- Physical Abuse
- Sexual Abuse
- Abandonment
- Domestic Violence
- Neglect
- Sexting
- Sexual Exploitation
- Lack of Supervision

When Must a Report be made?

- North Carolina requires a report when you have “any cause to suspect” abuse. That standard is lower than the usual “reasonable suspicion” standard.

WHERE Must You Report?

- If it happens here on Campus you must report to our Campus Police.

How is a report made?

- A report may be made orally, in person or by telephone, or in writing.

WHY Must You Report?

- Knowingly or wantonly failing to report suspected abuse is a Class 1 misdemeanor.
